EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Acknowledgment is made of the amendment filed on 2/28/05. Claims 17-19 are currently pending.

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jeffrey Glabicki on April 7, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

- in claim 17, line 3, substitute "capable of" with --for--;
- in claim 18, line 3, substitute "capable of" with --for--;
- in claim 18, line 5, substitute "transmits" with --for transmitting--;and
- in claim 19, line 3, substitute "capable of" with --for--.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 17-19 are allowed.

Art Unit: 2876

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: although the Ryan invention teaches a card with a stored telephone number therein for use with a radiotelephone, the prior art of record, fails to teach, or fairly suggest either alone or in combination thereof, a radio unit and method having a transceiver for transmitting a first personal access number to a wireless network to access the wireless network, the transceiver receives a second personal access number different than the first personal access number, and the transceiver transmits the second personal access number to subsequently access the wireless network. Prior art dated prior to October 6, 1992 (i.e. the effective filing date of the instant application) fails to teach the aforementioned limitation.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
